Day 03: Honda Bay Island hopping tour (B/L) 23 Feb 2020

This morning we travel Just 45 minutes north of the city proper, hop onto a motorized outrigger canoe called a banca and go island hopping at Honda Bay located in the mid-eastern coast of the city. With visits to stunning islands, with white sand beaches:

Luli Island is actually a short term for "Lulubog - Lilitaw", which means Sink & Rise, which is what the Island does; at high tide the island disappears and at low tide, it reappears.

Cowrie Island is named after the small-to-large sea snail, marine gastropod mollusc called "cowrie." The island has a number of cabanas, a pavilion and thatched-roof spa huts, all overlooking the sea and creating a beautiful, picturesque scene.

Starfish Island has the greatest population of Star Fish (Sea Stars) in all of Palawan. Symmetric five-armed orange Star Fish are the most abundant type in the area but you may be lucky to spot other varieties.

ITINERARY: 0700H - pick up at hotel

0800H - arrive at Honda Bay Island jump off point

0815H - start of island hopping: 3 island: Cowrie, Luli and Star fish Island

1330H - head back to mainland

Day 04: Half Day City Tour (B) 24 Feb 2020

Discover the most interesting spots and places of the capital of Palawan!

Visit The Palawan Wildlife Rescue and Conservation Centre formerly known as the Crocodile Farm and Nature Park. This centre advocates the protection of wildlife that features a crocodile farm, a veterinary care facility, and a mini-zoo that features various species endemic to Palawan. Meet a Philippine Crocodile and feed them if you like.

Another stop would be Mitra's Ranch located in the hill of Sta. Monica Heights. Spot the triangular-shaped mansion built in the middle of the spacious picnic grounds and enjoy an amazing panoramic view of Honda Bay.

Just a few minutes from the ranch is the Baker's Hill. Popular for its baked goodies. Don't miss to try their famous "hopia".

Do not miss Binuatan Creations, a handicraft shop and see how local artisans make products utilizing Palawan's indigenous fibers. Their products include bags, place mats, coin purse, table runners, wallets and many more.

Get a glimpse of a dark past of Puerto Princesa City during the second World War. Visit the Plaza Cuartel. See the bronze marker that contains the name of eleven prisoners of war who managed to survive the horrible massacre that happened here.

Across Plaza Cuartel stands the Immaculate Conception Cathedral which her majestic beauty will definitely capture your attention. The church was built during the Spanish era and has since become a spiritual refuge for locals and visitors.

ITINERARY: 0800H - pick up at hotel and start of the half day city tour 1200H - eta back at hotel
